On 12.14.2014 at approximately 0120 hours, Sgt. Beatley, Deputy Murana, and I were dispatched to [REDACTED] for a disturbance. Dispatch told me reporting party [REDACTED] reported her husband Christopher (Chris) King had possibly taken "bad drugs" and was shooting a bow and arrow while holding their two year old daughter. Dispatch said Chris was completely naked and making a mess of their home.

Sgt. Beatley, Deputy Murana, and I arrived on scene and [REDACTED] opened the door. As I walked into the residence I observed Chris holding a frightened, small, female child who was identified as [REDACTED]. Chris was completely naked and making unintelligible comments. I observed the couch was flipped over and the family Christmas tree was lying on the floor with broken Christmas ornaments lying on the floor. In the wall next to the Christmas tree I observed an arrow sticking out of the wall. I heard Sgt. Beatley ask Chris if he could help him pick up the tree. Chris said yes. Sgt. Beatley asked Chris if he could hold [REDACTED] while he picked up the tree. Chris handed the child to Sgt. Beatley who immediately gave the child to [REDACTED].

Chris got extremely agitated and yelled he wanted [REDACTED] back. Chris began to walk towards [REDACTED]. Sgt. Beatley and I grabbed Chris by the arms and told him to put his hands behind his back. Chris began to violently resist by pulling his arms away and kicking his feet at Sgt. Beatley and I. Sgt. Beatley and I attempted to pull Chris to the ground with negative results. During the struggle Sgt. Beatley, Chris, and I ended up falling on the small sofa located the back wall by the front door. I placed Chris' right arm in a twist lock control hold. Chris quickly locked out his elbow. As a result of Chris locking out his elbow I transitioned to a bar arm control hold. While holding the bar arm control hold I observed Chris strike Sgt. Beatley in the face with a left closed fist. I placed my right hand on top of Chris' elbow and began adding pressure. I yelled at Chris to stop resisting but he continued to attempt to strike Sgt. Beatley and pull his arm away from me. I pushed on Chris' elbow in an attempt to gain control and as a result I dislocated Chris's right elbow. Chris screamed, "My arm's broke" but continued to kick and fight. Despite a dislocated elbow and numerous attempts to take Chris down to the floor, Sgt. Beatley and I were unable due to his resistance and the altercation taking place in a small area. Deputy Murana deployed her X26 Tazer with the probes striking him in the upper right arm. Chris screamed and slightly bent at the waist. Deputy Murana ordered Chris to the ground but he refused and began kicking me in the right shin. Deputy Murana deployed her Tazer once again. Chris again screamed and continued to resist by violently kicking and refusing to go to the floor. Deputy Murana deployed her Tazer a third time. Sgt. Beatley and I forced Chris to a prone position, Sgt. Beatley placed him in handcuffs.

While on the ground Chris attempted numerous times to stand up. I forced Chris again to a prone position and placed his legs in a figure four leg control hold. Deputy Murana contacted dispatch and requested medical respond to our location. After some time had passed Chris had calmed down and was following directions, as a result I released the figure four control hold. Deputy Murana and I remained with Chris while Sgt. Beatley obtained statements from witnesses (See Sgt. Beatley's

Supplemental Report

Case #2014-011572

On December 14, 2014 at approximately 0130 hours, [REDACTED] contacted the Plumas County Sheriff's Office by dialing 9-1-1. [REDACTED] reported her husband, Christopher King, ingested Psilocybin mushrooms and was out of control. [REDACTED] stated Christopher shot an arrow through the living room wall, was completely naked and holding their two year old daughter.

Sergeant Beatley, Deputy Klundby and I responded to the King residence located at 146 Fourth Street in Quincy. I activated my audio recorder and later entered into evidence the following contact. Upon our arrival [REDACTED] immediately opened the front door. Sergeant Beatley requested permission to enter the residence and she asked us to come inside. Once inside the residence I observed a naked W/M/A, later identified as Christopher King, holding a frightened child, later identified as [REDACTED]. A large couch near the entry way was flipped on its back, the Christmas tree was on its side and an archery arrow was protruding from the wall.

Sergeant Beatley approached Christopher and asked if he could assist him in picking up the Christmas tree from the floor. Christopher agreed and Sergeant Beatley asked if [REDACTED] could hold the child while they picked up the tree. Christopher handed the child to Sergeant Beatley who in turn handed the child to [REDACTED]. Christopher immediately changed his mind and began yelling, "No! No! No! Give em' back!" Christopher charged Sergeant Beatley. Deputy Klundby and Sergeant Beatley grabbed Christopher and attempted to place him in a control hold. (See Sergeant Beatley and Deputy Klundby's reports for control techniques used.) Christopher flailed, kicked and punched violently as he yelled incoherent and meaningless words. Sergeant Beatley, Deputy Klundby and I gave Christopher lawful directives to place his hands behind his back and stop resisting numerous times. Sergeant Beatley and Deputy Klundby attempted to force Christopher to the ground but he resisted violently. I removed my handcuffs and attempted to restrain Christopher's hand with negative results. I observed Christopher strike Sergeant Beatley in the face (right cheek and neck) with his left hand, two times. Christopher kicked Deputy Klundby several times in the shin area. With my handcuffs still in my hand, I struck Christopher three times in the right shoulder. The altercation traveled from one side of the living room (near a loveseat near the front door) to the entry way, to the tipped over sofa, back again to the side of the living room. The physical portion of the fight lasted for two minutes and six seconds. Christopher showed no signs of compliance. I removed my department issued Taser X26 (serial #X00-143981) and deployed the cartridge. Two probes connected with Christopher's right tricep. Christopher began to scream and yelled, "Ok I'm done, I'm done, I'm done", however he continued to kick and punch. I utilized the drive stun mode with my Taser and pressed it into his upper back. Christopher fell to the ground and screamed but continued to kick. I gave Christopher lawful directives to stop kicking but he attempted to get to his feet and kicked Deputy Klundby in the shin. I initiated a second Taser cycle. Sergeant Beatley attempted to secure Christopher in handcuffs but he continued to fight. I initiated my Taser for one additional cycle and Sergeant Beatley was able to secure Christopher in handcuffs. Christopher continued to kick and Deputy Klundby secured him in a figure four leg lock.

I requested PCSO Dispatch send medical personnel to treat Christopher. Once on scene EMT Cliff Sutton removed the Taser probes from Christopher's arm. I collected the darts and located three AFIDS, which were all entered in as evidence. Christopher was strapped to a backboard and transported to Plumas District Hospital's Emergency Room via ambulance.

Deputy Vickery arrived on scene to assist.

Christopher was eventually medically cleared for incarceration. During the altercating I injured my right knuckle.

Case Status: Closed by arrest.

On 12-14-2014 around 0121 hrs Deputy Klundby, Deputy Murana and I responded to [REDACTED] Street in Quincy. [REDACTED] called the Sheriff's Office to report her husband, Chris King, had taken some "bad drugs" and was thrashing the house. [REDACTED] also advised Chris was naked, holding their two children (5 and 2 years old), and had shot an arrow into the wall.

Upon arrival I was greeted by [REDACTED] at the front door who invited us inside. I immediately saw Chris, who was completely nude, holding his two year old daughter, [REDACTED] and standing in the middle of the living room. The living room was in complete disarray with the Christmas tree knocked over and the couch over turned. Chris was extremely tense and had a "blank stare". Chris's pupils were extremely dilated, indicating he was under the influence of drugs. I tried to keep Chris calm and told him his Christmas tree had accidentally fallen over. I asked him if I could help him pick the tree and he said yes. I told him I would need to hand [REDACTED] to her mother so I could help him and he agreed. I quickly grabbed Kenzie and handed her to [REDACTED] who took her into the bedroom with their son [REDACTED]. Chris then changed his mind and started screaming. Chris charged Deputy Klundby and I. We told Chris to stop and he refused. I grabbed Chris' left arm while Deputy Klundby grabbed his right arm. I attempted to place his arm in a rear wrist lock control hold but he was able to pull away and started to punch and kick Deputy Klundby and I. Chris was able to strike me in the left wrist and the right side of my face. I grabbed his left arm again and delivered two or three knee strikes to the lower left rear half of his body while trying to take him to the ground. Chris continued to thrash around and was still able to pull away and attempt to strike us. I delivered three or four punches to his mid back and left ribcage area, while trying to pull him to the ground. At this point Deputy Klundby was able to secure Chris' right arm and place it in bar arm control hold. We repeatedly ordered Chris to stop resisting and get on the ground but he continued to try to fight us. Deputy Murana advised she was going to "tase" Chris and he still continued to attempt to resist and assault us. It was obvious Chris was feeling little to no pain. I stepped backwards and told Deputy Murana to "tase" him. Deputy Murana tased him in his right arm and we were able to pull him to the ground. Once on the ground we forced Chris to lay on his stomach. Chris tried to get up and started kicking Deputy Klundby. Deputy Murana was forced to tase him two more times, however he continued to try and get up. I was able to place his left arm in a rear wrist lock and hand cuff him. Chris remained resistive and did not follow our orders. Deputy Klundby placed his legs in a figure four and pinned him to the ground.

Chris' right elbow appeared to be dislocated and we requested an ambulance. Deputy Murana and Deputy Klundby stayed with Chris (see supplemental reports for further), while I spoke with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who was also present during the incident.

[REDACTED] told me he is Chris's friend and came over to hang out with him tonight. [REDACTED] told me Chris took some "mushrooms" tonight and had a bad trip. While at the house Chris became angry, took off his clothes, and started accusing [REDACTED] of sleeping with [REDACTED]. Chris started to thrash the house, knocking over the Christmas tree and pushing over the couch. He then picked up [REDACTED] and would not give her back to [REDACTED] while walking around the house. He eventually put her down but picked up a compound bow. Chris was standing on the south side of the living room and shot an arrow into the north living room wall. [REDACTED] said everyone was standing in the kitchen out of the line of fire. [REDACTED] showed me the arrow stuck in the wall and a Camouflage "Parker" compound bow on the kitchen floor. I later seized the bow and arrows and placed them into Quincy Evidence. [REDACTED] said Chris then picked up [REDACTED] again and would not give her back to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] then called the Sheriff's Office for help. [REDACTED] said Chris never actually physically assaulted anyone. I asked him what he saw when we arrived. [REDACTED] said Chris was out of control and "you guys did what you had to do". [REDACTED] said he was very grateful we were able to get [REDACTED] away from Chris before she got hurt.

I talked with [REDACTED] who told me Chris came home tonight and was out of control and high on mushrooms. He was upset and thought she was sleeping with [REDACTED]. Chris grabbed [REDACTED] and would not give her back. He eventually gave her back and she went into the bedroom with her kids. While inside the bedroom she could hear Chris inside the kitchen rummaging for knives. She went back into the kitchen and observed Chris shoot the arrow into the wall. He then was able to pick up [REDACTED] again and [REDACTED] called the Sheriff's Office. I asked [REDACTED] if Chris assaulted anyone and she said no, "he just pushed me out of the way once". [REDACTED] was unable to provide any further information at this time. I checked on [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who were unharmed physically.

I photographed the inside of the residence and Deputy Klundby and Deputy Murana escorted the ambulance to PDH with Chris.

I went to PDH and photographed Chris' injuries (several red marks on his back and dislocated right elbow). Deputy Murana told me her right hand was sore from struggle. I photographed her hand and Deputy Murana photographed some redness on my left wrist and redness and a scratch on the right side of my face and neck. I later downloaded the photographs to a CD and placed it into Quincy Evidence.

Deputy Vickrey arrived at PDH and stayed with Chris while he was treated. Chris was later transported to the Plumas County Jail where he was booked for 69 PC, 243(b) PC, and 273A PC.

Case Status: Closed by arrest.

Supplemental Report

Crimes: 148PC, 69PC, 273(a)(a)PC

S/ Christopher King

V/Deputy Klundby, Deputy Muranna, Deputy Beatley, [REDACTED], [REDACTED]

On December 15, 2014 I contacted [REDACTED] for a follow up interview regarding this case. The following is a summary of that interview. I asked [REDACTED] to walk me through the events from the early morning of December 14, 2014 involving her Husband and children. [REDACTED] told me she was in bed asleep with her children in her and her husband's Bedroom on the north side of the house when Christopher arrived home from work. Her husband Christopher told her earlier that he was going to have his friend [REDACTED] over to visit. [REDACTED] said she could hear Christopher starting to become upset over text messages [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] had sent each other earlier in the week concerning the power being out. [REDACTED] said it seemed the argument was starting to escalate. [REDACTED] got up and asked Christopher if he was OK and questioned Christopher if he was drunk or on something. [REDACTED] went back to bed trying to make sure her children were not bothered. [REDACTED] again got up to see what was going on because it seemed the argument was still escalating. [REDACTED] mentioned she could hear Christopher get a knife out of one of the kitchen drawers but never saw Christopher with a knife. [REDACTED] got up again to see what was going on and at the same time Christopher entered their bedroom with his cell phone and turned on the lights. Christopher continued to be upset about [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] texting each other. [REDACTED] pleaded with Christopher to come to bed thinking he was only drunk.

At some point Christopher told [REDACTED] he was on mushrooms. [REDACTED] became very worried by this and attempted to contact Christopher's father hoping he could help calm Christopher down. Christopher started making statements like "I'm an alien and I don't need these." Christopher then took off his clothing stripping completely nude, then took out his contact lenses. Christopher continued to make accusations that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were having an affair and made statements about his children not being his. Christopher was also making statements about how "infallible" he was. [REDACTED] attempted to contact Christopher's father again several times without success. While [REDACTED] was in her bedroom attempting to calm their children, Christopher knocked the Christmas tree over and flipped the couch upside down while arguing with [REDACTED]. Christopher went outside to get his bow and arrows. When Christopher returned to the living room Christopher made the statement "This is how serious I am." and shot an arrow into west side of the north wall. It should be noted, according to [REDACTED] there was at least one child [REDACTED] in the bedroom behind the north wall. [REDACTED] showed me where Christopher was standing when he fired the arrow and a hole in the north wall. Christopher was approximately seven feet from the wall the northeast corner of the room. [REDACTED] stated she was holding her daughter [REDACTED] and standing behind Christopher when he fired the arrow pleading with him to stop because of how dangerous it was. [REDACTED] decided to call 911 because she was afraid someone may get hurt. Christopher put down the bow and picked up his daughter then said he was going to leave. Christopher was still nude when he attempted to leave the house with his daughter [REDACTED] in his arms. [REDACTED] convinced Christopher not to leave. Shortly after Christopher's attempt to leave, Sgt. Beatley arrived on scene. Sgt. Beatley convinced Christopher to hand him (Sgt. Beatley) [REDACTED] and Sgt. Beatley immediately handed [REDACTED] to [REDACTED]. Jennine said she does not really know what happened after that because she took [REDACTED] and went into the other room to be with her children.

I asked [REDACTED] if Christopher was actually aiming the bow and arrow at anything or anyone. [REDACTED] said she believed Christopher was just acting "Psycho" and not aiming at anything specific.

I recorded my interview with [REDACTED] and later recorded that interview onto a CD. The CD was then Booked into evidence for this case.

Forward this report to the District Attorney for review.
